JARVIS REPLIES

ARGUMENTS REFUTING ATTACK
MADE ON CHRISTIAN SCIENCE BY BROWN

Editor News: During the past few weeks there have been in your midst two earnest workers, invited by the pastors of your local churches to bend their efforts in arousing the people of your city to a greater interest in the things of God, in inducing men to lead better lives and to stimulate activity in church affairs in general. Following his usual custom, and apparently as one of the conditions of his contract, Evangelist Brown devoted considerable of his time and energy in bitterly denouncing a religion of which a large and growing number of your citizens are adherents. This naturally gives rise to some speculation as to how the gentleman reconciles his tirades of abuse and misrepresentation with the teachings of Jesus who brought a message of "on earth, peace, good will toward men," and of whom he professes to be a follower.

What is there about the lives of Christian Scientists or of the teachings which they have embraced, to arouse such antagonism on the part of those who worship the same God, the same Christ and who love the same Bible? Is it because the former are endeavoring to the highest degrees of their understanding to fulfill the entire command of Jesus to not alone preach the gospel, but to heal the sick? Is it because they are quietly going about their Father's business striving to conform their lives as nearly as it is humanly possible to that of the Master Christian and refusing to criticize or to condemn their neighbor's religious belief? Is it because they are not only students of the Bible, but actually trying, with a marked degree of success, to apply its teachings to the solution of their daily problems? There are many Christian Scientists in Glendale whose friends and neighbors have listened in amazement to the statements of Evangelist Brown and while the growth of the Christian Science movement in the face of just such untempered attacks upon Mrs. Eddy and her teachings should be striking proof of their futility, it is but fair to your readers to offer a few words of correction to the remarks of Rev. Brown quoted in your columns.

The evangelist stated that the Christian Science movement draws "from the established churches, making no attempt to reach the unchurched, the poor lost of the underworld, and are rightly classified parasitic." Possibly one way to prevent defection would be to cease such tactics as those employed by the critic and give those who "hunger and thirst after righteousness" something better than Christian Science has to offer. As for the "unchurched," a goodly percentage of those composing the Christian Science movement either did not believe at all in the Bible; were indifferent on the subject of religion; were agnostics, or were enslaved to sinful habits and without hope in the world. Through the beneficent teachings of the textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, these people have been transformed into earnest Christian men and women and devout students of the Bible. That "God is no respecter of persons" is a truism to which the Christian Science movement bears eloquent testimony.

The textbook above mentioned is not intended as a substitute for the Bible as our critic asserts, but is merely a commentary or "key" as its name implies. As to its having "come from questionable sources," Mrs. Eddy tells us on page 126, "I have found nothing in ancient or modern systems on which to found my own, except the teachings and demonstrations of our great Master and the lives of prophets and apostles. The Bible has been my only authority."

It is not exactly clear why exception should be taken to the custom of Christian Science practitioners to receive pay for their services. The minister usually receives a salary for his duties, which include prayers for the recovery of the sick, and the physician is paid for his efforts to heal the sick. According to certain members of those two professions however, it is quite unfair to remunerate the Christian Scientist who is devoting his every effort to relieve every form of human discord, but unless the services of Evangelist Brown are available without remuneration, he is hardly in a position to raise the point of compensation.

Then we are told that Christian Science attracts because it is "human plus Satanic." Does not this sound strangely like an accusation made some nineteen hundred years ago against one who was going about the

NORTH GLENDALE

ANNEXATION WON'T AFFECT
BRANCH POSTOFFICE OR PROPOSED ROAD IMPROVEMENTS

Annexation of North Glendale to city of Glendale will not interfere with the branch postoffice and proposed road improvement of North Central avenue, Kenneth road and North Pacific avenue.

According to reports of E. H. Tatum, who interviewed County Counsel Haas very recently, the following statements are issued:

The above improvements, proceedings of which are running under the county, have reached the place where the bids will be opened Monday, April 5th, and contracts of same will immediately be awarded. After the contract is signed the final vote on the part of the city of Glendale could be taken without interference to contract awarded, as the county was legally obliged to culminate the contract, and was bound to contribute toward the improvement from the county road tax as agreed. Also that it was the opinion of County Counsel Haas that the policy of the board of supervisors was to follow up all improvements started prior to annexation.

In regard to the branch postoffice located in Casa Verdugo the committee interviewed the Los Angeles postmaster and he referred them to the superintendent of delivery who stated that in the delivery of mail the lines of incorporated cities were not considered in the economical delivery of mail and that the Casa Verdugo office delivers mail in portions of Glendale and Casa Verdugo and that the carriers have more than they can do to make two deliveries a day, therefore there is no possibility of the Casa Verdugo branch office being disturbed. Also that the main territory supplied by Glendale covers portions of Eagle Rock, Glendale and Tropic and there is no fear of any change in the present system.

As stated by superintendent of delivery.

Signed: Messrs E. H. Tatum, W. A. Brown, George H. Marsh, Com.

VIOLATION OF CITY ORDINANCE

Some one carelessly in the past two days scattered fragments of printed cards on the sidewalks and street crossings in the business part of Glendale. Such wilful violation of a city ordinance should meet with the disapproval of the police department and the guilty parties should be made to answer for their gross carelessness.

CITY TRUSTEES IN REGULAR WEEKLY SESSION

QUESTION OF ALLEY ADJOINING THIRD STREET SCHOOL IS DISCUSSED—CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REPORT READ AND CONSIDERED IN COMMITTEE OF WHOLE—$87,000 WATER BONDS TO BE SOLD TO STAATS CO.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the city of Glendale was held in the city hall, Monday evening, March 15, 1915. There were present: O. A. Lane, president of the board; trustees Charles Grist, J. S. Thompson, A. W. Tower and George Williams. Also present city manager T. W. Watson, city clerk J. C. Sherer, city attorney W. E. Evans, H. B. Lynch, manager of the Public Service department; Edw. M. Lynch, city engineer; G. B. Hoffman, city treasurer and G. H. Herald, city marshal.

O. A. Lane, president of the board announced that the reading of the minutes would be dispensed with until the city manager, T. W. Watson, had given his report, as Mr. Watson had another appointment and wished to be excused early. Mr. Watson stated that instances had been reported to the milk inspector that milk is not being properly cooled in some of the dairies, and he recommended that the milk ordinance, No. 223 be amended so that all dairies will be required to properly cool the milk before placing it on the market. Mr. Watson reported that he had been requested to have street signs placed at the corners of streets. He asked the board if it would be suitable to have the names of the streets lettered on the curbs instead of using posts as has been the practice up to the present date.

Mr. Watson also reported that he had the blanks filled out for employers liability insurance. His report was referred to the finance committee.

Mr. Watson's report having been received in full, the chairman of the board now ordered that the minutes of the previous meeting be read. The same were read, and after a few minor corrections they were announced as being approved by the board.

The question of the width of an alley adjoining the property of the Third street school came up for consideration. Frank E. Thorpe of 214 S. Kenwood and A. M. Brooks of Jackson street were present, asking that the city trustees require the Board of trustees of the Glendale city school district to set apart a twenty foot alley instead of a ten foot alley as had been planned by the board. Richardson D. White, supervising principal of the Glendale city schools was present to represent the school board and stated that the old alley was only ten feet wide, and the school trustees are of the opinion that it is merely the changing of the position of the alley and the alley in the new location should be only ten feet as the old one was, and they think it is unfair to the school district to furnish a twenty foot alley. Mr. Thorpe said that a ten foot space would be inadequate and would not permit vehicles to turn in the alley, and it is his understanding that the school district is getting considerable alley property without paying for it, and he thinks they should be willing to allow twenty feet as asked for by the adjoining property owners.

City engineer Edw. M. Lynch, to whom the question of the school alley had been referred several weeks ago, stated that thus far he had been unable to have an interview with members of the school board, but that he understands that at their meeting Thursday evening the question will be taken up, and it is his opinion that the width of the alley can be satisfactorily agreed upon without putting the city to any expense in complying with the law as required in case of protest.

A communication was read from Dr. E. F. Archer, the attending physician in the case of the injury of Frank Fellows, stating that the extent of Mr. Fellows' injuries are such that he is for the present totally disabled. On motion the treasurer was instructed to draw a warrant for $37.48, that being the sum due Mr. Fellows from February 18, to March 18. The fact was also brought out that the city will be required to pay the charges of the attending physician in the Fellows case. Mr. Fellows having been injured while in the employ of the city.

Frank Fugua of 612 Chestnut St. made application to sell milk and cream. The application was O. K'd by Milk inspector G. H. Herald. Application was granted.

A report from the Chamber of Commerce by J. W. Uilston, president, was read and placed on file and later in the evening was taken up for consideration, and on motion was referred to a committee of the whole.

Demands were read and referred to the finance committee.

A statement was read from the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company stating that the receipts of the company in the city of Glendale for the year just ended amount to $39,713.28 and the conditions of the franchise make it necessary for the company to pay to the city 2 per cent of that amount. Therefore a check for $794.20 accompanied the statement.

H. B. Lynch, manager of the Public Service department said he had been advised by the Wm. R. Staats company that they would buy $87,000 of the water bonds. A resolution was therefore adopted by the board that water bonds to the amount of $87,000 be sold to the Staats company.

Mr. Lynch also brought up the question of the city purchasing a machine at the price of about $350 with which to make cement meter boxes. He said the boxes ready made cost $1.25 each and that by the use of the machine they could be made for about 50c each, and as there will be probably over 2000 boxes needed soon, he thinks there will be a great saving made by the city purchasing such a machine. The city attorney advised the board that it would be necessary to advertise for bids in case it would be thought best to make purchase of the machine referred to, as all expenditures amounting to more than $300 can be made only by advertising for bids.

Edward M. Lynch, city engineer, reported to the board that two weeks ago a protest had been received against the construction of a steel bridge across the wash at Canada boulevard, but on account of the

METHODIST RALLY

There will be a rally at the First Methodist church, corner of Third street and Dayton court, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the prayer meeting hour. Every member of the church is expected to come and all the new converts or Methodists who made a new start during the meetings are urged to come. The pastor, Rev. Bede A. Johnson, announces that there will be a welcome for all. A supply of the Brown and Curry song books were purchased and will be used in this service.

T. W. CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Goodwin of West Tenth street were host and hostess Saturday evening to members of the T. W. club. The decorations were of spring flowers, jonquils and peach blossoms lending an air of spring. Five Hundred was enjoyed during the early hours of the evening. Mrs. A. D. Pearce and Mr. Walter Stamps winning the highest scores. Dainty refreshments were served at a table gay with St. Patrick's day decorations, a bowl of fresias and maidenhair fern being used as a centerpiece. The guests found their places by means of hand-painted Shamrock cards. Those who partook of Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin's charming hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Stamps, Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Pearce and Mr. John Carnahan.

BOWERFIND-CARUTHERS

Miss Amy Bowerfind, who is teaching at Redlands, came home for the week-end and to be present at the wedding on Monday of her cousin, Lieutenant F. C. Bowerfind, paymaster of the cruiser New Orleans, to Miss Frances Caruthers of Chicago, who came with her mother a few days ago.

The wedding was solemnized Monday noon at St. James church in Los Angeles, Rev. A. W. N. Porter performing the ceremony amid friends and messmates of the groom. It had been intended that the marriage should take place in Chicago after Easter, but because of orders changing the course of the ship, Mr. Bowerfind found that he could not leave at that time, so it was decided that the young bride should come on with her mother that the honeymoon might be spent among the roses and orange trees of the sunny Southland.

After the ceremony the bride, wearing her grandmother's wedding gown of sixty-three years ago, an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the Alexandria. The cruiser New Orleans will sail for Mexico on Easter, and the young husband will sail with her, while Mrs. Bowerfind will wait his return early in June at Coronado, where the ship will then be stationed.

The great war is producing a bumper crop of widows' weeds.

THE BIG CHORUS

RARE VOICE OF EVANGELIST
HAS DRAWN MANY PENITENT
SOULS HOME TO SAVIOR

The success of the Brown and Curry combination is greatly enhanced by the rare voice of the singing evangelist. It is not a powerful voice and yet will it carry to the farthest corners of the largest auditorium, every word distinctly articulated and free from strain. Genuinely musical are the tones, a true tenor that reaches the heart strings with violin effect. Musicians used to say of Sankey that there were better singers in the world, but there was a something about the famous evangelist's voice that was indefinable and strangely winning and impelling. These words are equally applicable to Mr. Curry's singing. His is a rare gift. The thousands in the valley who have listened to the sweet strains of his voice floating over his little organ sending home the invitation to come to Jesus will testify that never did one wolf note mar, but articulating with the vibrations of every penitent soul that voice seemed to whisper in accents of mother love, "Come home." No human being could think or do bad while Curry is singing.

The work of the chorus will never be forgotten. From the opening night the singers of Casa Verdugo, Tropic and Glendale responded heartily, for there was no resisting Curry. The manner in which new hymns were learned and the expression so readily developed amazed everybody. The leadership of a vast chorus is second nature with Curry, and the world does not afford a greater master along this line. Dispositions are conquered and wills bended to the great master in remarkable fashion and there is harmony in the choir, miracle of the ages, while Curry is in charge. The singing was simply marvelous. The hymns in World Wide Revival Songs are the real thing. Mr. Curry is the genius of both the chorus and the song book, and we love both the man and the book. God be with them till we meet again.

One of Evangelist Brown's best outlines was used in the Saturday afternoon address to children. The three resurrections recorded as wrought by the Christ, that of the child, that of the young man, and that of Lazarus, were used to reveal how natural it is for the child to awaken to Christ, how more difficult it is to draw the young man away from evil associates who would carry him to a Christless grave, and how, as in the case of the mature man, Lazarus, there is a great stone to be rolled away before the voice of Jesus can penetrate the depths of a life so long dead in trespasses and sins. There was a big response from the children.

At the Saturday evening service Prof. Curry sang by request "Throw a Line." Rev. Smith of Tropic, who has met with remarkable success in his new field, led in prayer.

Evangelist Brown analyzed Paul's vision of Christ. Unselfishness, fearlessness, independence and fixedness of purpose were all compounded in the make-up of the mighty apostle to the Gentiles. The address was in keeping with the Saturday evening address, full of human interest and with a powerful punch.

In tomorrow's edition of the Glendale Evening News will appear the report of Sunday's sermons, the last of the series. There will also be a special announcement of a great program to be carried out by the united churches in the immediate future. Keep your eyes open for this important notice.

DISTINCTIVE SOUVENIRS TO BE GIVEN AWAY

The annual March sale of McBratney's Irish Linen Store, located in the Butler building on Brand boulevard, will start tomorrow, Wednesday, March 17. To mark the opening of the sale and in recognition of the day, every purchaser visiting the store Wednesday, St. Patrick's day, will be presented with a dainty pure Irish linen embroidered handkerchief of fine quality and distinctive design.

The success of the Irish Linen Store in Glendale has been phenomenal and proves the fact that a specialty store can be successful in Glendale. In less than two years Mr. McBratney has worked up the largest linen and dress goods business in the San Fernando valley, his success being due mainly to the quality goods that are strictly up-to-date and carefully selected.

Miss Elizabeth McCoy of Long Beach is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Smith of 143 South Maryland avenue. Miss McCoy arrived Saturday and will spend several weeks in Glendale.

FOUNDER'S DAY

P. T. A. FEDERATION TO COMMEMORATE OBJECT OF MOTHERS' CONGRESS

Tomorrow, March 17th, at 3:15 in the high school auditorium, the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations will celebrate Founder's Day. This is an observance that the national Congress of Mothers requests that federations and associations shall celebrate every year in order that the objects for which the Congress of Mothers was founded shall not be lost sight of. Mrs. Birney and Mrs. Hearst had the welfare of humanity through the conservation of childhood at heart when they conceived the Congress of Mothers, and it is desired by the national body that this magnificent object never be forgotten.

The local P. T. A. bodies are anxious that those who are not familiar with the aims of their organization should attend, as they want the public generally to know that while the social element is a recognized necessary factor in their work, it is only a means to the end of securing the best in development of mind, body and spirit for all childhood.

To this end, the program has been prepared with special care. Mrs. C. H. Ritchie, president of the first district of the California Congress of Mothers, will tell some of the things that have been accomplished in the eighteen years of the existence of the Congress of Mothers. Mrs. Chas. F. Sawyer of Long Beach will give her fine, inspiring address on "Character Building." This is an address which all earnest mothers should hear, as Mrs. Sawyer is a deeply Christian woman who has sought for guidance in the rearing of her own family, and has been enabled through her own gifts to pass on the results of her own experiences to others, in a most helpful way.

Mrs. C. W. Heinen will read a selection pertinent to the occasion. The High School Glee club will sing and at the close cakes and tea will be served by the following ladies: Mmes. C. L. Chandler in charge; R. M. Brown, Ed M. Lee, W. H. McMaster, Cora M. Taylor, R. W. Meeker, A. C. Andersen, Greely Kolts and H. H. Jepson.

Those not affiliated in any way with the Parent-Teacher body, both men and women, are specially invited to attend, and will be given a cordial greeting.

CHORAL CLUB CONCERT

There was a good attendance at the concert given Monday evening by the Glendale Choral club at the high school auditorium and Prof. Poulin, the director, as well as members of the club and those who were privileged to hear the concert, are very much pleased over the success of the club's second public appearance.

The chorus was assisted by three artists, all of whom assisted in making the affair one of intense enjoyment to all music lovers. Miss Lalla Fagge, violinist, who is connected with the Cooper School of Music, and a young woman of unusual talent, appeared and held her audience spell-bound with the strong and artistic rendition of her selections. Mrs. Bosserman, who is known to Glendale people as a pianist of wonderful ability, appeared to her usual advantage and proved to all who had not heard her before that she is a true artist. Mr. Roland Tomkins, tenor, gave two very catchy numbers, in which his fine voice was heard with splendid effect.

The large chorus did better than on their first appearance. They anticipate the wants of their director almost before he makes them known and respond as one person. To hear so many fine voices well trained and so masterfully led is an unusual and delightful experience. Especially in the Easter cantata did the chorus do themselves proud, and the soloists put so much expression into their work as to make it particularly pleasing. Those who took the solo parts in the cantata were Mrs. Frank Arnold, Mrs. C. H. Cunningham, Mr. F. W. Burgess and Mr. Tomkins. The concert was a treat to music lovers and an epoch in the history of musical Glendale.

FUNERAL OF MRS MOYSE

Because of the funeral of Mrs. J. Moyse, mother of Prof. Moyse, there will be no school on Wednesday at the high school.

CANADA ALSO IS INTERESTED IN PROHIBITION

Russia has refused to take revenue from or give further recognition to the traffic in liquors. France is moving step by step in the same direction. The British chancellor, David Lloyd George, in a speech at Bangor, Wales, said that drink is doing more harm to the three kingdoms than all the German submarines put together, and that the liquor traffic must be suppressed. Germany is drawing the lines closer and closer around the industry identified with this traffic. In the United States the prohibition movement is making greater strides today than ever before in its history. Alabama, by legislative enactment, decreed that any newspaper publishing liquor advertisements shall not be circulated in the state. The governor vetoed the measure when it came to him, but the legislature passed it over his head. Many leading newspapers of the country are voluntarily refusing longer to accept such advertising. All self-respecting journals will soon, it seems certain, reject this kind of patronage.

Canada has been extremely conservative on the prohibition question until quite recently. One province of the Dominion, at least, is now beginning to feel that the problem calls for radical treatment. The younger men of Ontario have forced the issue to the front. The saloon, they declare, must be abolished. At present all parties in Canada are united on certain all-important questions. Harmony is so vital that party lines are being ignored. Hear the Toronto Globe, organ of Liberal opinion: "The people of Ontario care not one whit for petty matters of party advantage, but they do care and will insist that their elected representatives in the legislature shall care, and shall care supremely, for those things that make for sober citizenship as against intemperance, for economic prudence as against waste, for industrial efficiency as against unfitness, and for moral reform as against reaction. The searchlight may have to be turned on the lobbyists of the liquor traffic who haunt the corridors of parliament session after session, if indeed they do not sometimes fill the seats of legislation."

Premier Hearst, as leader of the government, is told frankly that he has before him a responsibility which he cannot afford to neglect or to evade. N. W. Rowell, as leader of the opposition, is as frankly told that he has before him a duty "which is more insistent than it was a year ago—more insistent by the measure of the intensified insistence of these war times and war experiences." The business interests opposed to the corrective legislation demanded declare that if the reform element obtains what it is seeking now it will come back for more at the next session. They have cause for assuming this to be the case. The reform element in Canada and elsewhere will not be content until the traffic and the business interests concerned in it are wiped out completely. The universal revolt against the liquor traffic in several countries, plainly incident to the European upheaval, is leading directly, we believe, to the consummation of a blessing for humanity that will compensate in no small degree for the sorrow and destruction wrought in this period. It is essential that we have a sober and sane race, in order that we may have a peaceful world.—Christian Science Monitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Hogue of Los Angeles spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Carmack of 715 North Central avenue.

Mr. Clifford Deardorff, whose home is in Indiana, but who is a member of the U. S. navy, is visiting Mrs. A. L. Fisk of Seventh street for a few days.

Miss Minnie Hawks, who has been making her home the past year with Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Lane, 1017 Chestnut street, leaves Thursday morning for her home in Leamington, Ontario, Canada.

Mrs. Flora Pixley of 509 Columbus avenue had as guests at her home on Sunday her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McArthur of Los Angeles, Mr. M. Bannigan of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Miss Mildred E. Cary of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tillifer of Los Angeles, Mrs. M. D. Wiggins and Mr. Wm. Harrison of Bloomingdale, Mich., were callers on Monday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. I. H. Duffee, 508 South Brand boulevard.

The Monday Auction Bridge and Luncheon club met at the home of Mrs. D. H. Smith of 146 South Maryland avenue on Monday. Baskets of beautiful California poppies were everywhere in the rooms and the same color scheme was carried out in the delicious luncheon which was served at noon. The afternoon was spent in playing bridge, Mrs. R. E. Hewes winning the prize for the day. Miss Johnson substituted for Mrs. Herman Paine, who is ill, all the other club members being present.

Mrs. F. A. Field and Miss Bessie Field of 239 South Kenwood street were guests at an elaborate luncheon given by Mrs. Samuel P. Morse at her beautiful home in Hollywood on Saturday. Covers were laid for six and it was a rose luncheon, hundreds of pink Cherokee roses being used in decoration, while the hand-painted place cards were in the form of pink bunnies and little rabbits filled with bonbons were the favors. It was indeed a beautiful and unique affair and was greatly enjoyed by all.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

A very pretty affair, indeed, was the luncheon given Saturday by Mrs. S. B. Jones of 1543 West Seventh street in honor of the fifteenth birthday of her daughter, Miss Irene Jones.

The color scheme in the dining-room was effectively carried out with yellow nasturtiums and green plumosis fern. A delightful three-course luncheon was served at two o'clock and was heartily enjoyed by all. After luncheon baseball and many other games were enjoyed by the Misses Ruth E. Spafford, Phoebe Everitt, Erma Patterson, Eula May, Master William Jones and the happy honoree, all of Glendale, and by Miss Margaret Carroll of Los Angeles.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Bergen of Pasadena have returned home after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lilly on Louise street.

Mrs. L. H. Hyer, formerly of 333 South Louise street, who is making her home with her daughter in Los Angeles at present, is transacting business in Glendale today.

Mrs. L. D. Oliver of 1314 North Central avenue, assisted by Mrs. Geo. F. Larkey, will entertain the Football club on Friday, March 19th, the third Friday in the month.

Miss Cornwell, Miss Ruby Dale and Miss May Cornwell were dinner guests on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Emma Saxton on Orange street.

Mrs. K. R. Battin of San Diego arrived Monday to visit her daughter, Mrs. H. V. Everly of 1414 West Broadway. Mrs. Battin expects to spend about a month here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Carmack and family of 715 North Central avenue expect to attend a St. Patrick's day party in Alhambra on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Garrison of that city.

The Cinderella club met with Mrs. L. L. Frazee of 1463 West Third street on Saturday afternoon. The house was prettily decorated in green and the same color was carried out in both flowers and dainty refreshments that were served by the hostess. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in needlework and conversation and the special guest of the day was Mrs. F. L. Meneley. Club members present were Mmes. Ocher, Everly, Jackson, Kinser, Allison, Howell, Skiles and Frazee and Miss Jackson.

Masters Floyd and Archie Bercaw, aged 8 and 10 years, sons of Geo. W. Bercaw on Adams street, together with their cousin, Jackson Cook, aged three, and his father, were severely bitten at Santa Ana by a dog. The dog was killed and sent to Los Angeles for examination. Rabies germs were reported by the attending physician and those who had been bitten were all placed in a hospital for treatment by Pasteur's serum. At this writing all seem to be getting along nicely. Mr. Bercaw, father of the children, is constantly with them.

Mr. C. L. Cox, circulation manager of The News, was incapacitated for work last week on receipt of a letter from his daughter in Indiana informing him that he was "grandpa." He had scarcely regained his normal composure when a little son arrived at his own home Saturday evening and he has the swell head again.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Blake Franklin of 1498 West Third street entertained a number of the teachers of the Columbus avenue and Pacific avenue schools in celebration of the eleventh birthday of their daughter, Isabel.

St. Patrick place cards, napkins and decorations were used, everything being in green and white, and the refreshments were in the same colors, a big white birthday cake crowned with eleven green candles in green rose holders occupying the place of honor on the table. During the evening games and music were thoroughly enjoyed by all. Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Franklin and family were Mrs. F. G. Taylor, Miss Edith Tyler, Miss Hook, Miss Hunter and Miss Lilly Smith.

shores of Galilee and the hills of Capernaum healing "all manner of sickness and all manner of disease," that he performed his works "through Beelzebub the chief of devils?" Jesus was not hindered by this criticism from going on with his work, and it is recorded that some time afterwards, when again the charge was made against the disciples that one Gamaliel expressed himself to the critics of that time, "And now I say unto you, refrain from these men and let them alone; for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought; but if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God."

Finally the evangelist has disposed of the entire subject with an air of finality—"every vital Christian doctrine is denied by Christian Science, especially the atonement." In view of such a broad statement, I am sure it will be of interest to your readers to know just what the doctrines or "tenets" of Christian Science are. They may be found on page 497 of the textbook and read:

"1. As adherents of Truth, we take the inspired Word of the Bible as our sufficient guide to eternal Life.

"2. We acknowledge and adore one supreme and infinite God. We acknowledge His Son, one Christ; the Holy Ghost or divine Comforter; and man in God's image and likeness.

"3. We acknowledge God's forgiveness of sin in the destruction of sin and the spiritual understanding that casts out evil as unreal. But the belief in sin is punished so long as the belief lasts.

"4. We acknowledge Jesus' atonement as the evidence of divine, efficacious Love, unfolding man's unity with God through Jesus Christ the Way-shower; and we acknowledge that man is saved through Christ, through Truth, Life and Love as demonstrated by the Galilean Prophet in healing the sick and overcoming sin and death.

"5. We acknowledge that the crucifixion of Jesus and his resurrection served to uplift faith to understand eternal Life, even the allness of Soul, Spirit and the nothingness of matter."

"6. And we solemnly promise to watch and pray for that Mind to be in us which was also in Christ Jesus; to do unto others as we would have them do unto us; and to be merciful, just and pure."

It is a little late in the day to question either the scope and permanency of Christian Science healing or the character of its founder. For more than forty years, both have survived every conceivable form of attack from pulpit and press and stand today vindicated on every count. Those who knew Mrs. Eddy best loved and respected her most, and there has risen up a vast army of those who have been rescued from lives of sin, disease and suffering of every sort who would say of her, "Give her of the fruit of her hands and let her own works praise her in the gates."

I thank you for the opportunity of presenting the foregoing facts and remain sincerely yours,

CHAS. E. JARVIS.

JOHN ROBERT WHITE, SR.

Capt. John Robert White, U. S. V., 79 years old, a member of the Loyal Legion, who was commissioned for gallantry on the field of battle, and served with honor throughout the Civil war, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Steelman, 5317 Granada street, Los Angeles. He had been twenty years a resident of Los Angeles and vicinity. Death followed an illness of four days.

A native of Maryland, he enlisted at the outbreak of the Civil war with the Eighteenth Pennsylvania Volunteers, served four months, and re-enlisted at once in Co. G, One Hundred and Eighteenth Regiment, and went to the front as a first sergeant. At Shepherdstown, the sequel to Antietam, all the company officers were killed and by special orders of Maj. Gen. Fitz John Porter, Sergt. White was made a Lieutenant. He served with his regiment at Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, the Wilderness and through many engagements to Appomattox, having then been advanced to the rank of captain.

Mustered out of the service at the close of the war, he married Katie Ashbridge, daughter of a veteran of 1812. Capt. White became a widely known carpet manufacturer and importer at Philadelphia and continued in that occupation till he came to Southern California in 1895, when he retired from active business.

At Philadelphia Capt. White was a director of the Ninth National bank, the Central Trust & Safe Deposit company and the Industrial Safe Deposit company; was a member of the committee of fifty organized to promote measures for the benefit of the city, and was a well-known member of the Union League, United Service club, Historical society, the Masons, and a number of other societies and orders.

At his death he was surrounded by his seven children, all of whom live in and near Los Angeles: John R. White, Jr., Mrs. Katherine W. Steelman, Mrs. M. W. Hardenburgh, Llewellyn A. White, Mrs. Florence Edgar A. White.

The funeral service will be conducted at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the residence of John R. White, Jr., 101 Orange street, Glendale. Interment will be in Grand View cemetery.

communication having been mislaid, the same had not been acted upon. Therefore he recommended that the resolution adopted at last Monday's meeting ordering the construction of the bridge, should be set aside, and that a hearing be arranged for at eight o'clock next Monday evening. On motion the board concurred in the engineer's recommendation.

A resolution was passed ordering certain street improvements on Pioneer Drive.

E. U. Emery, in accordance with his promise at a meeting of the board of trustees March 8th, stated that he had found a location for C. W. Kent & Son's planing mill. He said the site is between Second and Third streets on the east side of Glendale avenue. However, it will not be possible to lease the property for that purpose at the location named for longer period than 90 days. Kent & Son now have a work shop in which machinery is installed between Brand boulevard and Orange street near Broadway, but they are not allowed to operate it on account of objections made to the noise made by the machinery. Roy Kent, junior member of the Kent firm, was present at the trustees meeting, and very courteously thanked Mr. Emery for the interest he had taken, but stated that they would not care to go to the expense of moving to the location on Glendale avenue unless they could be assured that they could remain there for a greater period of time than 90 days.

On motion the following demands were allowed and warrants ordered drawn on the city treasury:

P. D. Hall, services for city manager, $95.25.
Holabird Reynolds Electric company, supplies, $253.79.

Southern California Gas company, gas used at fire house for January, $7.48.

The board now adjourned to meet in a committee of the whole.

TROPICO

Charmingly arranged in all of its appointments was the dinner party with which Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gaither entertained at their home on Cypress street Saturday evening complimentary to Mrs. Gaither's cousins, Mrs. L. Rodenburg and Miss Helen Rodenburg of Los Angeles. The rooms were redolent with the perfume of that favorite spring flower, the violet, which peeped from bowls and vases, while the table was centered with a graceful arrangement of fragrant plum blossoms. Seated with Mr. and Mrs. Gaither and their guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. George Lunn, Mrs. Hal H. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Peters, Mrs. M. Molliere, Miss Blanche Davenport, Mrs. A. Hawn of Sacramento, Mr. Allen Davenport and Mr. Verne Porter.

The Tropico Thursday Afternoon club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Willis M. Kimball, corresponding secretary, Thursday, the 18th. The meeting is called for 1:30 o'clock at 1303 Maple avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian E. Baer have exchanged their property at 110 South San Fernando road for John R. Ashton's property at 124 North Glendale avenue. Mr. Ashton will conduct his bakery at the San Fernando address, while Mr. and Mrs. Baer will conduct a macaron establishment. Mr. and Mrs. Baer are famed for the superior excellency of their macarones and are now furnishing the Los Angeles trade with their goods, making as many as three hundred dozen daily. Mr. Ashton having enlarged his facilities for making the superior quality of bread, cakes and pies for which he is noted, will conduct his business at 110 South San Fernando road.

Miss Cora Hickman, district deputy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, was the guest of honor of Hollenbeck chapter of Los Angeles Monday evening. A handsome ivory toilet set and silver spoon were presented Miss Hickman by the chapter and officers of Hollenbeck. A banquet, at which three hundred were served, closed the evening's festivities. The banquet tables were elaborately trimmed in green and white, all of the appointments suggesting St. Patrick's Day. Those of Glen Eyrie chapter who participated in the festivities tendered Miss Hickman were Miss Fredonia Borthick, matron of Glen Eyrie; Mrs. Adelaide H. Imier, past matron; Mr. and Mrs. E. Lincoln Park, Mrs. Samuel A. Pollock, Mrs. Sallie Braden, Mrs. Alice Carvel, Miss Della Echols and Mr. James Wyvell.

JIMMY GIBSON INJURED

On Sunday afternoon as James Gibson, son of Mrs. Dora L. Gibson, teacher of music in Glendale schools, who lives at 1453 West First street, was placing a revolver in his pocket, the gun was accidentally discharged and the bullet entered his hip just below the waist, passing through about fourteen inches of the thigh and coming out above the knee.

Young Gibson is in the Thornycroft hospital and his physician thinks he will get along nicely and does not look for any complications.

But should a food famine impend, some of the politicians will not mind a diet of crow. They are accustomed to it.

Keep your complaints unspoken and your troubles will lessen.
